

BABY BABOON'S RAINBOW MOODS

"Somewhere over the rainbow, skies are blue, and dreams that you dare to dream really do come true." -Lyman Frank Baum

"Wa-Whoo! I've learned by watching my Dad to name, own, and move through my moods. Put on my tutu, say thank you and celebrate all of life's colorful possibilities..."

*...Like rain mixed with sunshine, if we face our fears and don't guard who we are—
Then fun silly upside down smiles of color appear to keep us believing." -Baby Baboon*
